September Monthly Meeting at The Renaissance Dupont Circle Hotel: Implant vs. Root Canal Treatment: Which One is Best?

Charles J. Goodacre, DDS, MSD

Letter from the President

Johanna Huijssoon, DMD, President

As the President of the District of Columbia Dental Society, I want to begin by welcoming our new Executive Director, Mr. Todd Philbrick. The Executive Director Search Committee worked tirelessly all year and on behalf of our leadership we are delighted to have Todd join our team. We are in the process of developing a new strategic plan for the D.C. Dental Society and we hope to have that finalized by the end of the year. This will help our Society to continue moving in a positive direction with renewed vision and revitalization.

Our Delegates to the American Dental Association, are essential in making sure that our voices are heard on a national level. The Delegates are busy with numerous issues that have become paramount in our profession. Access to care is our most prominent concern. The ADA continues to advocate for the “dental team” with the dentist at its helm. With that in mind, the ADA is advocating to increase funds for oral health programs such as:

- 1) The Indian Health Service
- 2) Oral Health Division of Centers for Disease Control
- 3) National Institute of Dental & Craniofacial Research
- 4) General and Pediatric Residencies

The ADA has drafted proposed legislation to expand Medicaid coverage to the visually handicapped and the disabled. In addition, the ADA is undergoing a governance review, studying ways the House of Delegates can reduce its costs and improve its efficiency.

Lastly, the ADA and many constituent Societies are in the process of enacting legislation to prevent insurance companies from imposing caps on “non-covered” services. Many of these issues have a profound effect on how we practice dentistry. I want to reassure you the D.C. Dental Society leadership will continue to do its utmost to preserve and honor our great profession.

I look forward to a prosperous year, a successful annual meeting under the leadership of Dr. Julian Moiseiwitsch, and continued growth of our Society. I highly encourage anyone who would like to participate in our D.C. Dental Society committees to contact me or other members of leadership. We would be pleased to have you share new ideas and work with us to keep the Dental Society strong, vibrant, current and last, but not least, a fellowship of friends and peers.

Meet the New Executive Director

Todd R. Philbrick, CAE, Executive Director

Greetings from 502 C Street

It was a pleasure to meet so many of you at the June Awards Ceremony. While I have only been on staff a few weeks, I can not thank you all enough for welcoming me into the D.C. Dental family.

I am a lifelong D.C. area resident and graduate of Salisbury State University with degrees in Marketing and Business Administration. More recently I earned the American Society for Association Executive's Certified Association Executive (CAE) certification. In addition to association management, I am well versed in certification, certificate and accreditation matters.

I look forward to working with the Board and members to fulfill the Society's Mission of promoting the growth of the dental profession through educational programming and educating the general public on the importance of dental health care by increasing the understanding and appreciation of the benefits of proper dental health care.

If you are in the neighborhood please stop by to say hello.

Foundation Corner

Sally J. Cram, DDS, D.C. Dental Society Foundation President

Rising unemployment, the poor economy, and increased costs of basics such as food and shelter, has left many of our community's residents unable to afford regular dental care. The D.C. Dental Society Foundation's mission to "connect with the community and help to change lives" is more important than ever.

Many people ask how they can help. Please consider volunteering for our community outreach programs, such as our annual Give Kids a Smile Day event at Howard University on February 1, 2013 or at the numerous clinics, which provide oral health care to low income residents in the District of Columbia. Just a few hours a week or month can completely change the life of someone who cannot afford to see the dentist regularly. If you can't volunteer, please consider providing financial support to the Foundation, which will allow the Foundation to provide grants to the Spanish Catholic Center, fund the award for the Howard Student Table Clinic Program, fund oral health preventative programs in our schools, and provide dental outreach programs for senior citizens.

Your Foundation Contribution and Pledge form will be arriving in November. Many of us are beginning to do our year end tax planning and philanthropic giving. Please take a moment to consider how you can be a part of "giving back" to the community. All contributions are tax deductible and go directly to supporting initiatives in the District of Columbia.

81st Nation's Capital Dental Meeting

Julian Moiseiwitsch, BDS, General Chairman, 2013 NCDM

March 7-9, 2013

It is with great excitement that I can announce that The Dawson Academy's Three Day Program will return in 2013. As you may remember, last year's Dawson Academy program was completely sold out. Participation in the 2013 program will again be limited due to the interactive nature of the program and we again expect the course to sell out. As a member of the D.C. Dental Society you are hearing about this first, so please register early and do not be disappointed as so many people were last year. The price of the course will remain the same and there will even be early bird specials beginning in September.

Dr. Mel Hawkins and Dr. Alan Budenz will again be presenting their incredibly popular registered clinic aimed at improving the efficacy of local anesthesia "30 years of Hits and Misses" followed by their hands-on "Anatomy of Anesthesia" participation clinic. This clinic sold out well before the first day when it was last offered at the Nation's Capital Dental Meeting and always sells out at the ADA meeting. So be sure to sign up early.

New for the 2013 NCDM, your registration fee will include a number of complimentary clinics. You must sign up in advance and look for the special signs when your registration package arrives later in the fall.

Be sure to mark your calendars and bring your staff for a fun and informative 81st Nation's Capital Dental Meeting. Like us on Facebook or visit <http://dcdental.org/capmeet.asp> to obtain the latest NCDM news.
